A ruckman, Mulcahy was captain of St Kilda when they won the 1970 VFL Premiership, taking over from Ernie Cooney who had been knocked out in a stunning preliminary final victory over Melbourne. This was St Kilda's first VFL premiership after two year's in the inaugural season and five years in the bush. Mulcahy played just one more league game, against Melbourne at the MCG in the 1971 VFL season. He represented Victoria at interstate football in 1967.
